$2,500.00 Offered for "Smiling Countryside"

Farms and ranches alongside of Texas highways will keynote Centennial visitors' impressions of this State.

The Centennial Farm and Home Demonstration Contest announced by the Extension Service is an effort to enroll every family living on a Texas highway in one great big reception committee to create a "smiling countryside" welcoming visitors to the birthday party.

Response to the announcement of the contest has been inspiring. Dallas News representatives met it when they went out to raise $2500 for prize money for the contest. Commercial firms gave generously to stimulate enrollment in the statewide movement to improve the homes and farms and ranches by which the State will be judged in 1936.

Newspapers all over the State have joined hands in co-operation with the News as representing the city where the principal Centennial event will be celebrated. Good editorials and generous inches of space are being given to promote the movement. Radio announcements on commercial programs are telling about it.

The Sister State of Oklahoma plans to "pretty up" the highways leading into Texas.

Extension Service agents aided by the men and women and boys and girls who have worked with them heretofore are helping Texans on the highways to make plans for improvements based on Extension Service standards for country homes of comfort and beauty.

Everybody wants to contest to be a success because Texas will be host to the Nation in 1936. Texas pride is involved. Texas pride is our pride. The nation's opinion of the homes and farms and ranches of Texas matters to every Texan. So enrollment will not represent alone a desire to win one of the big prizes but will be a measure of Texans' love for their State. — From Minnie Fisher Cunningham, A. & M. College Extension Service Editor.

W. T. HENNINGTON

OF McCULLLEY, DIED
LAST FRIDAY, JULY 12

In the early morning hours of Friday, July 12, W. T. Hennington, having been ill for several days, passed to his reward. The funeral service was held Friday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock in the Baptist Church in McCaulley, with Rev. J. P. Hardesty, pastor, assisted by Rev. J. H. Bate-man, pastor of the Methodist Church in charge. His body was laid to rest beside that of his wife in the McCaulley cemetery.

Willie Truman Hennington was born in the state of Mississippi, May 21, 1861. When he was a young boy his family moved to Ellis County, Texas. In 1885 he married Emma Bruce Beauchamp and to this union were born seven children, all of whom survive the father. Theirs was a beautiful companionship, and since her death four years ago last October, those who loved him most have known that his thoughts often dwelt on the time when he, too, would depart to join his companion in her heavenly home.

In early life, Mr. Hennington was converted and joined the Baptist Church. He came to Fisher County in 1906 and placed his membership in the McCaulley Church, of which he was a faithful member until the day of his death, having served as a teacher for many years and as a deacon for the last twenty-five years. A consecrated Christian life lived from day to day was a manifestation of his love for his Christ. His sincerity of faith, love and interest of the Kingdom shall ever be an inspiration to those who have known and loved him, to remain forever a priceless heritage.

The children who survive him are: H. W. Hennington, O. T. Hennington, A. H. Hennington, Ruby Hennington, all of McCaulley; A. B. Hennington, Lovington, New Mexico, Mrs. A. R. Martin, Post City, and Rev. R. B. Hennington, Dumont, Texas.

Miss Edwina Gilbert is visiting friends in Dallas this week.

HAMLIN LEADING LAST HALF

Hamlin defeated Seymour Sunday at Seymour by a score of 10 to 0. This victory placed Hamlin at the top rung of the Wichita Valley League for the second half. Courtney showed up to his usual form by letting the Seymourites down with one lone hit coupled with fifteen strike-outs. Seymour's other hit came off Spider Miers who relieved Courtney in the 7th inning after Courtney had been hit by a pitched ball from Raines.

Britt Pippin, Brad Rowland and Duck Weaver led the Hamlin attack with three doubles each for Pippin and Rowland, while Weaver connected for two doubles and a triple.

Munday comes to Hamlin next Sunday, July 21st, in which will probably be the deciding game for the league championship, as a win over Hamlin will throw them in a tie for first place, while a defeat will probably eliminate them as championship contenders. It promises to be a good game. Munday and Goree played 13 innings Sunday with Munday on the long end of the count 4 to 3.

"STEALING THE SHOW"

Manager Brit Pippin is guaranteeing all Hamlin fans a hustling ball team the last half, which is shown in the won and lost column.

It seems that four home boys are stealing the show.

Lefty Courtney having the best pitching record by far in the league, has put the home club where it should be, and hasn't pitched a bad game this season.

Duck Weaver, Arice Jones, and Brad Rowland all hitting in the 300 circle have been our big guns. These boys have been hitting in the pinches with long distance drives and have been the main cogs in our scoring.

When the Wichita Valley League picks their all-stars, I believe these four men will be in the line-up.

LIONS TO MEET IN MEXICO D. F.

CHICAGO, ILL.,—July 14. — For the first time in its history Lions International is holding its annual convention in a non-English speaking country. On July 23N an estimated 6,000 Lions and their friends will gather in the capitol of Old Mexico for their four-day nine-teenth annual meeting. They will reach the Aztec capitol by special train, by plane, by boat, and if the highway is in good condition hundreds of them will drive. Director General of Highways, Senor Gonzales, has ordered the Laredo-Mexico City Highway closed until July 15 to prepare it for the convention traffic.

The convention program will be opened at 2:00 P. M., Tuesday, July 23, when International President Hascall of Omaha, official of the Standard Oil Co. of Nebraska, will take charge of the sessions. His report, which will cover the record made by the Association during the past twelve months and will include recommendations for the new fiscal year will be one of the highlights of the business sessions.

Besides the business sessions for delegates and officers there will be an unusual amount of typical Mexican entertainment and hospitality. On Wednesday evening the President of the Republic of Mexico, Senor Lazero Cardenas, will receive the delegates, and prior to this Ambassador Josephus Daniels will receive delegates at the United States embassy. Some of the convention proceedings will be broadcast over a national hook-up in Mexico, which will be relayed by a number of American stations. Trips to the famous pyramids of the Aztecs, and the floating gardens of Zochimilco, a Mexican circus, and a trip around Mexico City are among the special features arranged for the delegates. The convention sessions will be held in the magnificent Palacio de Belles Artes, recently completed, while many of the evening affairs will take place in the newly erected Foreign Club. It is expected that a large portion of the delegates will take advantage of the post convention tours through central Mexico, which have been arranged for them by the Lions Club of Mexico City.

A unique feature of this convention is the use of a "Pullman City," for the accommodation of the delegates who will not be able to secure hotel rooms during the convention. Every hotel room and available apartment, and a good portion of the accommodations available in private homes are already reserved. Hundreds, possibly thousands will therefore stay in Pullman City during the convention, where they will have their own lighting system, their own police force, a special cabaret, restaurant facilities, shops, baths, and even carefully laid out streets and boulevards lined with trees and flowers.

HAMLIN LIONS ALREADY IN MEXICO CITY

Last Sunday, bright and early, Lions Dr. Turner Bynum, and Attorney Gerald Morgan, and Mrs. Bynum and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Smith left by auto for Mexico City. They left with idea of going all the way over the highway, taking perhaps three days.

They ought to have a grand trip, even though it becomes necessary to use a train part of the way.

NEW COUNTY AGT. SPEAKER AT ROTARY

Wednesday the chief speaker and guest of the Hamlin Rotary Club was the new County Agent of Jones County, Mr. R. H. Maxwell.

Mr. Maxwell has only been in this county a few weeks, taking the place of C. C. Jobson, who is now in Lubbock County.

Mr. Maxwell made a favorable impression on Hamlin business men and the general feeling is that he will make Jones County a valuable county agent. There is a great deal to be done in these days of trying to re-establish better conditions. The County Agent and the County Home Demonstration Agent are the two most important offices in this or any other county in Texas.

The Rotary Club also had as guests, Martin McCain, of Stamford, a former member of the Hamlin Club, and past president. Also Ed Stewart, a former Rotary president of the Abilene club.

Hamlin Rotary Club is now under the leadership of Ira A. Clements as president, with Deuman Morgan as secretary. The Club luncheons are at the Morgan Hotel every Wednesday.

The telephone goal of Europe is JUST A GOOD JOB here

The fast, clear, far-reaching telephone service of America has never been equalled by European nations. Differences in equipment, methods and policies have barred the way to such service among the many countries there.

In America, your telephone service has over-leaped state and regional lines. Here there are no telephone boundaries.

Your telephone is "first cousin" to each of 13 million other Bell telephones here. It is designed and manufactured to meet uniform operating standards.

Team-work

Every Bell telephone line, local and long distance, is built to conform to uniform tests of clarity and volume in carrying your voice.

Every Bell telephone operator, whether in New York, in San Francisco, or in the thousands of towns and cities between, is trained to use the same methods . . . the same team-work in operating the vast national communications network.

Organization

That these things are true is due largely to the Bell System form of organization.

American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the parent company, studies and standardizes better and more economical methods, apparatus and materials for the 24 operating companies of the System. Bell Laboratories carries on the research work. Western Electric manufactures, purchases and distributes.

Without this organization behind them, the Southwestern Bell men and women here who give your telephone service could not do their job so well. For many years it has materially helped us, as one of the group of operating companies, in holding the cost of good telephone service low to the user.

HOW ARE YOU VOTING?

All about over this state, little papers like the Hamlin Herald will be asking their readers from now on till August 24, "How Are You Voting?"

There are SEVEN questions coming up for a vote on August 24. Seven important questions to be inserted into our State Constitution.

Only the popular vote can change the Constitution. And the voter should be informed as to why and what would be the effect of the change.

Perhaps the most important question to be voted upon is that of PROHIBITION. To make it simple: Are you willing for the Texas Dry Constitution to remain as it is or do you want to do some "more fixing?" This paper is very willing for every voter to have his own say on this and all questions, but when you read the proposed change on the liquor question, you will easily see that the amendment is cunningly worded—that they seek to strike out all of the present sections 20a and 20e of Article XVI. To be brief, we think matters will NOT be made better by accepting this proposed amendment.

Another amendment would abolish the FEE System. Sentiment has been growing for this for several years. A straight salary system seems better than "fees." If an officer can't do his duty on a good salary, he should be kicked out of office.

Another amendment is to provide a way whereby a person thought to be insane, can be committed to an institution without a "trial." At present a trial is necessary, and they are always "fake trials." It's time to change that.

Another amendment is to fix our constitution so that Texas can participate in the Federal Old Age Pensions Plan. Texas people can not enjoy this unless our constitution is changed. The limit of help would be $15.00 per month to meet same amount from the Federal Government.

There is an amendment to provide that an amendment to our constitution may be offered during a special session. They can not do it now. All amendments must be offered now during a Regular Session. Turn the legislature loose, free to suggest amendments at will, any time and the people will always be harassed by some foolish question that must be beaten down or else become a part of the fundamental law.

A court amendment to be voted upon in August provides that a court having original jurisdiction in criminal cases may have the power to suspend the imposition or execution, after conviction, and place the defendant upon probation and to re-impose such sentence under such laws as may be enacted. Lawyers may know all about how well this will work, but not many lay voters. It looks like tying a court on a long string of cases, to keep tab on and it may be that it would give the courts too much "play ground."

Then there is another queer amendment: It provides for FREE school books to all scholastics in ALL schools of the state, whether such school is operated under the state system or not. It seeks to promote private and sectarian schools that are outside of the realm of state control, by furnishing such children with Free Text Books. It don't quite sound right. It appears to provide a weak link in a good chain. It will cost plenty more money if it is adopted. As it is now all schools operated in the State System have to use such adopted books as the state may offer, use them in certain grades and for certain years. The private school or sectarian school acts independent of the State. If the State should furnish them free books, then the state should have a say as to how and when such books should be used. It appears wise not to permit this mix-up of books and authority. Let private schools look out for themselves, if they choose to be private.

To say the least of it, no citizen, without some knowledge of his present constitution and what is proposed can vote as safely unless he be somewhat informed. Better be careful.

METHODIST CHURCH

We are now in a meeting at Trent, Texas, and it starts off encouragingly. The pastor, Rev. W. B. Reaves, says that the attendance is all that he had expected to date. Your prayers for the meeting will be greatly appreciated. In my absence from the community each member has a chance to feel that a new obligation rests on him personally in the carrying on of the program of the church. I do not believe that "when the cat is away, these mice will play." I appreciate this opportunity afforded me in getting to assist another pastor in his revival work and feel sure that the local congregation will carry on in my absence.

Mrs. Longino will have charge of both services Sunday, July 21st. You can make it much easier on her by being present and entering heartily into the services. The same I am sure you will be glad to do. Sunday School and Prayer meeting will continue as usual. There will be no disruption in the services for some person will be on hand to go forward with each service.

The latest report is that Dr. Stewart is improving rapidly and will be able to return to the District parsonage in Abilene in a short time. Since we have only four more months left of this year's work, whatever is accomplished will have to be done in a "jiffy" so let's be up and doing the things that falleth to our lot. And may he, who rewardeth all faithful workers, enrich your life with his Divine blessings.

W. A. Albritton left last Saturday for Monroe, La., to visit his mother.

W. W. Collier, Jr., spent last week in Coahoma visiting his sister, Mrs. R. N. Faurey. He returned home after a week-end visit with a school friend, Clifton Harris, in Big Spring.

W. L. Cash and wife, of Christoval, came up last Sunday for a week of vacation. While here John Green "slipped" a pretty new car to them.

Prof. G. R. Bennett left Tuesday for a trip to Fort Worth, Dallas and points in the Valley to visit Mr. Bennett's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Morris, of Jefferson, spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Russell, enroute to Lubbock. Mrs. Morris is a sister of Mrs. Russell.

One cannot fail, in tramping around Washington these days, to note the frequent expressions concerning the outlook for the New Deal and for President Roosevelt's personal political future. In fact, some hardboiled observers lately have been heard to say that Mr. Roosevelt is suffering from too much ballyhoo. He was put up on a pedestal that made of him in the eyes of many persons something of a superman. He himself is regarded as having contributed to this condition by his many campaign promises, some of which he has found absolutely impractical as remedies in leading the country out of the morasses and on to a more satisfactory economic plan. In truth, the President's own political colleagues have continued to depict him as an individual capable of things which no human can accomplish and this combination of circumstances is declared by many keen minded persons as likely to bring, if indeed it has not already brought, a definitely bad political reaction from the President's standpoint.

It is still fresh in the minds of men and women throughout the country how President Hoover was over-advertised as a superior person in an administrative way. Mr. Hoover suffered from too much ballyhoo to an extent greater than any other man who has served as President with the possible exception of Woodrow Wilson. When the depression came and the current turned against Mr. Hoover he was utterly powerless. With a recalcitrant congress on his hands and a dissatisfied people, Mr. Hoover met the fate that must have been expected.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

The Swimming Hole

Children should never be deprived of the pleasure, the exercise, or the safeguard which swimming affords. Although the familiar plea, "May I go swimming?" makes us a little squeamish, there are few parents who don't see the importance of granting that wish.

It's folly to be always saying "No." And it's worse to scare the child. Probably the sensible move is to get acquainted with the swimming hole. Enlist the aid of other parents. Call upon the health department to test a sample of the water. There may be other departments that will help you rid the bottom of old tin cans, broken glass, and rocks. If not, organize a group of fathers to tackle the job. But if the hole can't be made healthful and safe, petition the police or town council to close it.

There are many instances where that "ole swimmin' hole" has been transformed into a place of beauty and a cause of community pride. Some of the worst places are now public parks where the whole family may enjoy a daily frolic in the water and a picnic supper. No one believes it can be done, until they try it. Many believe there is no such place near their town, until they look around. The effort will more than repay you.

Should a child's summer meals differ from those of winter? Next week Dr. Ireland will give advice on this problem.

Don't worry over something to worry about.

MEAL OF THE MONTH

"Convenience" is the keynote of this Meal of the Month for June but nothing in the way of appetite appeal is sacrificed. The menu is ideal for warm weather, corned beef hash, green peas and salad.

By MARIE GIFFORD
Armour Food Economist

EVEN the most loyal and conscientious wife and mother balks at spending hours in a hot kitchen when the thermometer gets into the eighties. And there's really no need to, because there are many meals which not only can be prepared with a minimum of cooking, but are actually more appetizing in warm weather.

The Meal of the Month for June is a combination which, I think, "has everything." The main dish is sliced corned beef hash. The vegetable is buttered green peas, easily prepared and quickly cooked. Then there is a crisp vegetable salad, sliced tomatoes on chickory. The seasonal dessert is fresh strawberry tarts with whipped cream.

I say it has everything because it meets all of the requirements of both the cook and the diner. Corned beef hash, made from the best brisket beef can be obtained in attractive tins which are enamel lined. The proportion of potatoes is carefully measured and the dish is mildly seasoned to suit the taste of the most particular people.

After being chilled in the refrigerator, the contents of the can is removed in a solid roll and cut into slices which can be heated and attractively browned in just eight minutes or baked in the oven with your tarts. Your corned beef hash dinner will not only be convenient, but it will be economical, healthful and delicious.

There are other canned foods which combine both meat and vegetables, offering the basis of a full meal for only a few cents. Women who have not investigated the developments in this direction recently will be agreeably surprised by the progress which has been made to improve the taste and quality of canned meats.

MEAL OF THE MONTH

Tempting Ready-to-Serve Meats of many varieties are the basis of the quickly prepared Meal of the Month for July.

By MARIE GIFFORD

TEMPTING cold cuts which are obtainable in almost endless variety are the basis of the Meal of the Month for July.

Cold meats have always had a leading place in some menus, but few women realize how many different combinations can be prepared which will make each meal of ready-to-serve meats new and interesting.

The other dishes making up the menu should be varied also. Here are some suggested combinations of ham, sausage, meat loaves and cheese which make attractive cold plates.

Boneless baked ham, pickle and pimiento loaf, canned corned beef, canned Vienna sausage, American cheese.

Lays Out Work for Congress

Washington. — President Roosevelt has submitted to congress a list of the legislation he deems necessary to have passed before the present session adjourns. He has divided it into two categories—"must" and desirable. If congress enacts only the list of "must" legislation and passes over the other group of bills which the President considers desirable, it is made to appear that the membership of the house and senate is due to suffer some of the torrid temperature and the uncomfortable humidity of a Washington summer. The President said he must have legislation extending the National Recovery administration, providing social security, eliminating public utility holding companies, increasing the loaning power of the Home Owners Loan corporation, extension of the so-called nuisance taxes which expire by limitation of law on June 30, and revision of the banking laws.

In addition, the President made known that he would like to have enacted legislation to take the profits out of war, whatever that may mean. He previously had sent a message asking enactment of a law providing for expansion of the American merchant marine through the use of ship subsidies, and he also desires to have enacted legislation setting up machinery for the settlement of labor disputes. This legislation is in the congressional hopper in the form of a bill by Senator Wagner, of New York.

The President would like to have amendments to the agricultural adjustment act in order to eliminate some of the weaknesses which the AAA people admit exist. The airmail contract situation is another matter with which Mr. Roosevelt has been concerned.

Seasoned observers recognize that this list of "must" legislation, not to mention the desired legislation, is sufficient to keep congress grinding away far into the summer. They recognize likewise that if the desired legislation later becomes of such concern that the President wants to place it on the preferred list as well, the membership of congress must be prepared to forego summer trips of any kind.

Since a good many members of congress have grown tired of being called rubber stamps for the administration, they naturally have turned attention to legislation which they think will be helpful to their own bailiwicks.

Pets of Their Own — for the administration, they naturally have turned attention to legislation which they think will be helpful to their own bailiwicks. To themselves personally or from a party standpoint. Thus there have been promoted numerous pieces of legislation for which some individuals, at least, entertain greater fervor than they do for measures that were drafted by President Roosevelt's official family and transmitted to congress as administration legislation. It is the general observation that an individual, representative, or senator frequently will go much further in fighting for legislation that is his own brain child than for legislation placed before him on a silver platter such as administration proposals have been. Consequently, individual or group measures are constantly cluttering up house and senate legislative calendars. This is a factor meaning delay for administration bills.

It is to be remembered, as has been reported in these columns, that Mr. Roosevelt is unable to ward off criticism of some of his proposals. Indeed, there have been Democratic criticisms and Democratic opposition to a greater or lesser degree to all of the legislation he has proposed since congress convened last January. All of which is by way of saying that congress faces weeks of committee work and floor debate despite the fact that the house Democratic leaders still retain rather solid control of a sufficient majority in the lower house of congress to drive through any pet measures for the administration. In the senate the situation is decidedly different.

Included in the legislation being fostered by individual members is the bill that would permit cabinet officers to appear on the floors of congress for questioning and explanation, such as occurs under the British and French parliamentary systems. The administration does not want this bill. It will have to exert some pressure to avoid passage. The reason is that the Roosevelt administration is no longer one in which the cabinet is dominant. Cabinet officers are only part of the scheme, and if congress wanted to inquire about the handling of relief money, which it probably will desire, it must talk with Administrator Hopkins. Mr. Hopkins is not in the cabinet. The same is true of NRA and to some extent to the AAA, although Secretary Wallace of the Department of Agriculture theoretically is a superior officer to Administrator Davis. The administrator is definitely opposed to the passage of bonus legislation for the former soldiers, sailors and marines and it looks like a Presidential veto will be necessary there. The same is true of inflationary proposals of which there are many. The situation is one, therefore, in which Mr. Roosevelt must be constantly on his guard to prevent action which he does not want as well as being fortified at all times with pressure to put through the legislation he has described as necessary. Thus it is seen he is confronted with many complications which did not disturb him in the first two sessions of New Deal congresses and these complications mean a longer life for the current session.

Nervous, Weak Woman Soon All Right

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quits and I did not cramp. I felt worlds better. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she was soon all right."

This community was made sad, last Friday, July 12, when the death angel took away one of the best men, Mr. Willie Truman Hennington. He was born May 21st, 1861, in the state of Mississippi, moved to Ellis County, Texas, when still a boy and moved to Fisher County in 1906. He was married to Emma Bruce Beauchamp in 1885, who preceded him in death several years ago. To this union was born seven children: Clie, Ruby, Albert and Harvey, all of McCauley and Mrs. Ray Martin of Post City and Rev. Roy Hennington of Dumont, Texas, and Arthur Hennington of Lovington, N. Mex., and nine grand children.

The funeral was held at the Baptist Church, of which Mr. Hennington was a member and also a deacon for around twenty-five years. Rev. Hardesty, Baptist pastor, and Rev. Bateman, Methodist pastor, officiated.

Mr. Hennington was one of the outstanding Christians of our community and will be missed by all and will be remembered by his devotion to the church by his prayer life also. He was a man of high ideals.

Pallbearers were: B. F. Short, M. L. Akins, Bill Pickon, A. A. Calloway, Ernest Webb, Flower-bearers: Misses Manon Jayroe, Vivian Pearl Madden, Agnes Faulkenberry, and Melba Miles.

Interment was in McCauley Cemetery, under the direction of the Barrow Undertakers, of Hamlin.

Miss Faulkner Leading Jones County Women In Good Work

FITTING IS BIG PROBLEM IN WARDROBE WORK

"In making foundation patterns, I have made fitting my 'hobby,'" said Mrs. Carl Bonneaux, Class 2 wardrobe demonstrator in the Noodle club and winner in that division in the County Dress Contest.

"I have given 22 demonstrations and worked in 7 counties. I have planned and designed 33 dresses for non-club members, have cut and fitted 43 patterns, assisted with the making of 15 others, checked and rechecked 12 patterns; making a total of 12 patterns in all," continued Mrs. Bonneaux.

"I still keep the idea going that a good fitting pattern is the secret of Up-to-date home made clothes and I am going on making foundation patterns through our clothing work is over," Mrs. Bonneaux added.

FINDS CANNING INTERESTING

"Up until last year I had never canned to amount to anything," said Mrs. Carl Youngquist of the Swenson Home Demonstration club. "This year I have learned to use a pressure cooker and sealer and have canned 200 containers of fruits and vegetables. I plan to can much more before I quit. I find canning to be most fascinating," continued Mrs. Youngquist.

IMPROVES STORAGE SPACE

T SMALL COST

"By taking a useless plank on the end of the porch that was a bird trap and cleaning it, I now have 3 good substantial shelves in my clothes closet," said Mrs. C. L. Sherill, Class I Wardrobe Demonstrator in the Stith Home Demonstration Club and who won 1st place in her division of the dress contest and had a report of 100 per cent foundation patterns in her club and all club members with a dress and slip made by their patterns.

"The closet was papered, the shelves painted, rod re-arranged, shoe racks, hat racks, belt rack and a short rod for my daughter's clothes were added. All this improvement was made at a cost of 45 cents.

BUILDS OWN WINDMILL

"In order to irrigate my garden, I made a windmill at no cost and placed it on the banks of the tank to pump the water," said Mrs. C. R. Foster, Avoca.

"This wheel is 4 or 5 feet in diameter and is made of scrap material," said Mrs. Foster.

Mr. Foster had made and laid 365 feet of tile for sub-irrigation at a cost of $3.15.

Smiles Her Way To Fame

by Gloria Lane

DORIS FORD smiles her way to fame and fortune as New York's favorite artists' model. Her winning expression has been painted on canvases by such well-known artists as Howard Chandler Christy, James Montgomery Flagg and McClelland Barclay.

Because Miss Ford finds her lips and teeth play an important part in the charm of her smile, she has a special beauty ritual. To keep the contour of her mouth soft and to encourage a cupid's bow effect, she practices a two minute lip exercise every day. With the tip of her index finger in the cleft above her upper lip, and her middle finger and thumb in opposite corners of her mouth, she draws her fingers to the center, holds it a second, and relaxes. This is repeated several times.

Miss Ford's sparkling white teeth are kept thoroughly clean in her two minute rotary brushing treatments. She selects a tooth brush with round end bristles and massages her gums until they glow. This is done without irritation and assures her firm, healthy gums and teeth... and a perfect smile.

ord since that time. In 1921, he was appointed staff agent. In 1927, along with the position of state agent, he was appointed vice director.

MISS HORTON APPOINTED

At the same time of Williamson's appointment, Miss Mildred Horton, state agent for the women, was named vice director of the Extension Service.

Mildred Horton is a native of Dallas County, a graduate of C. I. A. She was the FIRST WOMAN to can a WHOLE beef. At the beginning of the Federal relief canning drive last year, Miss Horton was called to Washington to help plan the entire canning program for the whole country. Later representative were sent to Texas to train before the canning program got under way.

In 1924, when Mildred Horton became state agent for the Extension Service for the women, there were only 82 home demonstration agents in Texas. Now there are 154.

America Leads in Inventive Genius

Granting 2,009,957th Patent Tops Other Countries

IN the huge building, sprawling over two blocks, which houses the United States Patent Office in Washington, a curious little ceremony took place. To Joseph V. Ledwinka, veteran Chief Engineer of the Edward G. Budd Manufacturing Company, of Philadelphia, Commissioner of Patents Conway P. Coe handed a document, simultaneously pronouncing these sonorous words, The Literary Digest reports:

"Mr. Ledwinka, this patent, numbered 2,009,957, in the current series, has importance as a testimony that some two millions of American inventors, including yourself, have, through the years and decades, given their country industrial preeminence among the nations."

Actually, it was the 2,009,957th patent issued in the United States, for before the present series began, on July 28, 1836, 9,957 patents had been issued, the first, in 1790, to Samuel Hopkins, for a method of making "pot and pearl ashes," the name then given to lye.

The first patent bore the signature of George Washington.

Patenting Abroad

A year ago, when approximately 1,900,000 patents had been issued by the Government, the Patent Office made a survey of the patents of other countries, and found the French to be the next most inventive people, with 871,532 patents up to January 1, 1934.

Great Britain had 797,153; Germany, 583,723; Italy, 273,598. Canada rated high in inventiveness, in proportion to population, with a total of 325,500 patents. Japan had issued 33,361 patents, and the U.S.S.R., 63,992.

Bill Medford of Fort Worth, is enjoying the association of old friends on Hamlin streets these days. Bill has also been in Louisiana and besides visiting his father, W. C. Medford and old friends, here, he is spending some time in this glorious good clean West Texas air to recuperate from the attack of Long mosquitoes. He was in Shreveport, La. two months this past spring and from his smile and remarks he appreciates the quiet peace that prevails in his old home town.
